The board of directors met this afternoon and the question of reducing the admiresion on yanday to 25 cents was considered; and finally decided in the negative.

It was also proposed to admit children.

It was also proposed to admit children under 12 years of age at 10 cents, but the directors would not have it, by a decisive vote. It was expected that important action would be taken on the matter of continuing the exposition after Oct 31, but President Peck task the time was inauspicious for its comideration and the subject was speedily dropped.
